

Scarlet Wines List

The Old Forge, Griggs Quay, Lelant, Cornwall, TR27 6JG

01736 753 696, info@scarlet-wines.co.uk, www.scarlet-wines.co.uk

We deliver any number of bottles to anywhere in the UK for £10, free delivery with in the TR26 and TR27 postcodes on order above £75

Please call if you have any questions we'd love to be able to help. If you can't find what you want ask - we may be able to get it.

Wine	Description
Cornwall		£1
Knightor Carpe Diem	From the superb 2014 vintage, this is a deliciously young fruity and drinkable with tangy citrus fruit	£12
Knightor Carpe Diem Rose	From the superb 2014 vintage, lots of fresh ripe berry fruit flavours here backed up with a vibrant tingly freshness	£12
Knightor Bacchus	Deliciously floral, light and crisp, this is perhaps England's answer to Muscadet and it would be delicious with a plate of seafood	£13
Polgoon Aval	This is apple cider made in exactly the same way as Champagne. The result is deliciously, fresh, lively and fragrant	£14
Polgoon Raspberry Aval	Like the Aval but with an added dash of raspberry juice, giving it an extra red fruit dimension and a dash of softening sweetness	£14
Camel Valley Rosé	A light rosé with intense strawberry aromas. Dry and goes beautifully with barbecued mackerel, perfect for sipping al fresco	£15
Trevibban Mill Merope	From Cornwall's newest vineyard, this is deliciously fresh and zesty with a nicely floral lifted nose and real persistence of flavour	£15
Trevibban Mill Rock Rose	Lovely ripe red fruits on the nose, then serious, elegant and structured on the palate very good and much more Provence than Madrid in style	£15
Polgoon Rondo Red	This is rare example of English red. It has bright lively raspberry and cherry fruit. There is a freshness too that works perfectly with antipasti	£15
Camel Valley Bacchus	Young, aromatic, fresh and zesty - Cornwall's answer to Muscadet	£17
Polgoon Rondo Pinot Noir	One from the superb 2014 vintage this is a rare UK red but it has lovely ripe red fruit and a lovely fresh streak running through it	£17.50
Polgoon Bacchus	One of the superb 2014 wines. This is a light floral and elegant style of wine that is the perfect summer drink. Great with seafood or a salad.	£17.50
Polgood Red	Our only Cornish red and very good it is too. Raspberry fruit, lots of perfume and a lovely freshness drive this along nicely. Delicious	£17.5
Knightor Trevanyon	Has the trademark Knightor fresh crispness but with a lot more complex aromatic fruit and more weight in the body	£18
Polgoon Brut	This is made in exactly the same way as champagne and has a lovely creamy mousse. It's fresh but a little softer and fruitier than champagne. Shows just how good our local sparkling has become	£28
Knightor Brut	Crisp and clean but also with some richer and riper fruit flavours this is a delicious example of Cornish sparkling wine	£28
Trevibban Mill Brut	Cornwall's latest sparkling wine and it's a real winner, deliciously light and floral	£30
Camel Valley Brut	Made 40 miles away in the Camel Valley. Typically floral, light and lively, with a clean line of freshness running through it	£31
Camel Valley Sparkling Rosé	In 2009 this wine was crowned Sparkling Rosé World Champion ahead of Bollinger Champagne amongst other trophies. Strawberry and raspberry nose, fantastic integrated acidity. Bring on the summer!	£33
Champagne		£1
Grande Reserve Devaux	We treat this as the Scarlet Wines house Champagne, clean crisp and delicious	£34
Lamiabe	Really classy growers wine from the Valee de la Marne this has intense red fruit flavours and is superb value at this price.	£32
Charles Heidsieck Brut Réserve	Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier & Chardonnay. Golden colour with a 'persistent effervescence'. Complex nose. Matured for more than 3 years in Gallo- Roman chalk cellars.	£45
Agrapart Terroirs	Superb growers blanc de blancs Champagne with heaps of lees character, bready, biscuity and complex. Ignore the understated label, this is excellent	£56
Charles Heidsieck Brut Rose NV	Soft, rich and intense with complex red fruits and some spice on the palate this is first class Rose Champagne, real luxury and one for a special occasion	£57

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
Charles Heidsieck Millésime Vintage	One of the most awarded Brut vintages in the world... lingers eternally in the mouth with a magnificent structure. Matured in 2000 year old chalk cellars for over ten years.	£1
Sparkling		£75
Lehman Black Queen	Try this! Totally mad and uniquely Austrian, this is full bodied rich, peppery shiraz made into sparkling wine. Full on, unrestrained hedonism in your glass.	£1
Pepik Sekt	This is a wonderful and unusual sparkling wine from the cool island of Tasmania. Sparkling Riesling here is deliciously complex, aromatic and above all cristal clear and bright. Unusual and utterly delicious	£21
Nyetimber Classic Cuvee	Totally convincing and every bit as good as champagne. So support the UK and give this a go. Delicious and crisp with bready complexity and lovely length	£21
Cremant de Jura	This is from mostly Chardonnay, made just like champagne but with a drop of Vin Jaune added as dosage. Ask us for an explanation! But the taste is ace, crisp and elegant but with a twist of intriguing complexity. Incredible value too.	£38
Blanquette de Limoux	Blanquette de Limoux is an historic style that must be made from the increasingly rare Mauzac grape. It has a lovely apple peel quality. Richer than champagne but with great freshness and cut	£18.5
Bugey Montagnieu	Little known grapes but first class. Fine mousse, lovely length and a delicious fresh, fruity, mineral zing	£14
Bis Bis Prosecco	Surely the most girly bottle in the shop? Fresh, crisp and elegant sparkling rose wine packed with red fruit flavours, and a bit of fun too	£21
Attemasi Brut	Made just like champagne, from 100% Chardonnay grown in cool Trentino this is incredibly classy fizz for only a little more than Prosecco. Fine mousse, fine elegant fruit and a long clean finish	£9
Attemasi Brut Rose	Could this look any more sexy? Lovely colour and with some nice red fruit notes this is a lot of bang for your buck	£16
Lunetta Prosecco	Floral, fruity and fun this is classic Prosecco at a great price	£16
Lunetta Prosecco 200ml	Floral, fruity and fun this is classic Prosecco at a great price in a convenient mini bottle	£10
Graham Beck Brut NV	Really good SA sparkling wine that is close in style to champagne	£3.5
Babot Cava	From a small Producer, lots of clean clear cutting freshness but also richness and flavour; all at a really good price	£14
Australia		£12
16 Stops Chardonnay	The fruit from this comes from the cool Fleurieu peninsular so the wine is elegant and fresh with apple and peach fruit, it is unoaked too	£1
Dandelion Vineyards Riesling	Award winning new wines from Eden Valley, lime, citrus and green apple and little spiciness, perfect with Asian food	£9.5
Xanadu Sauvignon Semillon	Lovely citrus and passion fruit from the sauvignon but fleshed out mid palate with some extra weight from the semillon, would be perfect with shellfish or most seafood	£12
Brookland Valley Chardonnay	Real quality and winemaking skill here, some is barrel fermented with wild yeast, the rest in stainless. The result is balance and complexity - grapefruit, peach and lemon fruit plus a little vanilla and spice. Delicious in other words	£12
Brookdale Semillon	If you have not tried one before buy this! Hunter Semillon is amazing and unique; intense lemon and lime fruit, long length and moderate alcohol make it the perfect match for all kinds of seafood	£13
Amelia Park Semillon Sauvignon	The blend of Semillon and Sauvignon if from Bordeaux, but it is fast becoming a Margaret River classic. The Sauvignon gives freshness and aromatics, the semillon a little weight and richness. Lovely lime and pear fruit with a joyful exuberant tang	£14
"Polish Hill" Clare Valley Riesling	An extraordinary and seamless Riesling - really delicate and balanced	£15
Alsace		£31
Cattin Riesling	Lean racy and citrus laced Riesling. This has lovely bright fruit, crisp acidity and a delicious tang. Fully dry style.	£1
Cattin Gewurtztraminer	Classic Alsace Gewurtz, big bold and sexy with heaps of lychee, rose petal and handcream aromas. It's like a very saucy lady swimming around in your glass...	£12
Domaine Boesch Pinot Blanc	Vibrant lemon fruit and a hint of ginger, this is fully dry and a deliciously deep and flavoursome wine. It is biodynamic too and made with real care and skill	£14
Fredric Mochel Pinot Gris	Clean, off dry and super spicy this is first class Pinot Gris with weight and intensity - off dry so perfect for Asian food or spicy flavours it is a universe away from the blandness of pub Pinot Grigio	£16
		£20

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
Bordeaux		£1
Ch de Rouquette	Nicely rich and full with a lot of bouquet, 20% Semillon gives it a nice fat body to complement the freshness from the 80% Sauvignon	£12
Burgundy		£1
Vire Clesse Macon Villages	A fresh ripe lemony Macon but what makes it special is the long minerally finish; clean, precise and seriously well made wine	£15
Bernard Moreau Chardonnay	This could only come from France; very restrained fruit, but intense, lean and mineral with a savoury edge, it keeps you coming back for more	£15
Garnier Petit Chablis	From young vines, low production, low intervention style with real fruit depth and character, stony finish	£17.5
Pascal Pauget Macon	Really great Chardonnay from the Macon, everything by hand, organic but without certification. Sees 12 months in barrel to soften but lots of fresh citrus and a striking minerality to finish	£19
Domanie Oudin Chablis	This wine has very precise citrus fruit, good texture and marked limestone minerality. Dangerously composed and easy to drink! It is less sulphur bound than many straight chablis.	£19.5
Chateau de Chaintre Pouilly Fuisse	Fuisse is a Chardonnay wine from South of the main centre of classic Burgundy. It is warmer here and this gives the wine lots of ripe, tropical, peachy fruit and lovely weight and richness, almost unaoaked it is fresh and lively too	£22
Boissonnesuse Chablis	This is biodynamic and incredible complex for a chablis but with absolutely thrilling fruit, minerality and length. To prove just how unique it is it comes in cases of 7! First class Chablis	£22
Meursault Moret Nominee	Seriously seriously good, firm full palate great complexity and a long nutty finish, one for that special occasion	£60
Loire		£1
St Fiacre Muscadet	Classy, dry and delicate this has nice pear and jasmine fruit and just that perfect hint of bready complexity. The personification of crisp!	£10.5
Vendome Blanc	This is from a totally obscure AC North of the R Loire. This has a super fruity nose then a more serious, intense and long palate	£11
Domaine Beausejour Touraine	Classic Touraine quite a ripe style, fragrant nose lychee and honeysuckle, fresh lively fruity palate	£12
Sancerre Domaine Sautereau	A classically minerally and aromatic Sauvignon from the Loire, still a classic style - leaner and more bony than New Zealand but just a fresh and arguably more elegant	£17.5
Domaine Jeannot Pouilly Fumé	Coming from the flint rich soils of Saint- Andelain there is a pronounced flinty character on the nose rich complex and really minerally palate, thoroughly deserves it's gold medal	£18
Francoise Pinon Vouvray Silex Noir	100% Chenin Blanc with vibrant grapefruit flavours and awesome chalky minerality, this has a touch of residual sweetness but it tastes very close to dry, delicious in other words	£19
Vincent Gaudry Sancerre	Benchmark Sancerre with balance and elegance. It has it all, silky smooth palate, tangy freshness, good body, and superb and complex fruit. It is biodynamic too perhaps explaining that balance and complexity	£23
Gerard Boulay Sancerre Monts Damnes	Restrained on the nose, it has evident weight and exotic fruit, then becomes really quite racy with salty, iodiney notes on the finish. Good until 2019.	£33
South		£1
Croix Gratiot Picpoul	Delicious wine; full of intense crisp, clear, lemony fruit, nice weight, good length, really fresh. What more could anyone ask for at this price?	£10
Duc du Morny Picpoul	Vibrant and fresh with melon fruit, nice palate weight and a lovely salty tang to finish	£9
St Hilaire Vermentino	Could Vermentino be your new favourite grape? It could. Deliciously ripe and fruity with, lots of peach and pear fruit, good length, great to drink on its own without food	£10
Domaine Gayda Viognier	Musky, peachy, perfumed and with classic Viognier body this seriously over delivers for the price	£10
Guilhem Gascogne	This has a great clean line of freshness running through it, nice delicacy and citrus fruit, great with seafood	£10.5
Domaine Sergent	Largely unknown appellation giving wines similar to Jurancon, this is mouthwateringly tangy with ripe stone fruit and a crackling zing of freshness	£12
Montesquiou Jurancon	60% Gros Manseng, 30% Petit Manseng, 10% Petit Corbu, classy fresh and bright. Jurancon is a classic style of wine from SW France	£16.5

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
Vin Jaune	Vin Jaune is rare, unusual and exceptional. The wine is aged for 6 or 7 years in oak vats exposed to the elements. It develops a yeasty, nutty and super tangy complexity as a result, a little like amontillado sherry. Comes in 1 pint bottles. Incredible with pungent cheese!	£31
Domaine de l'Olibet Viognier	Peachily ripe and fruity, this is delicious heady stuff with lots of body weight and a mineral streak to balance all that fruit	£8.5
Volcans White	This is a minerally, lean but deliciously fresh style, no oak and. More chablis than Australia!	£10.5
Germany and Austria		£1
Mehrlein Riesling	Dry style, with bags of citrus fruit, a zingy aromatic nose and a delicious freshness. Try this as alternative to Sauvignon - please!	£12
Johanneshof Reinisch	Pronounce those grapes at your peril. But this is just delicious; ripely, richly fruited but with a chromium blade of bracing freshness to tension it all up, no oak just masses of stone and tropical fruit	£14
Turk Gruner Veltliner	The most sinfully under appreciated grape we stock? Try this please... Crystal clear fruit, refreshing acidity, lovely	£14
Dreissigacker Estate Riesling	Organic, low intervention and wild ferment Riesling from the reviving Rheinhessen region, this is dry, medium bodied and with a crisp clean clarity of fruit	£15
Turk Riesling	We have stocked Turks Gruner for ages now. This is the sister to it, Riesling with pristine clarity, bright fresh gooseberry, apricot and peach fruit and a lot of weight on the palate	£17
Markus Molitor Kabinett	This is a first class single vineyard Mosel Riesling, a hugely underappreciated style in the UK. This is fully dry, intensely fruity with a fine mineral finish, a real joy	£18
Schloss Volltrads Riesling	From a top quality and super historic producer who has been making wine since 1728. This is a classic dry Riesling style with heaps of apple, pineapple and peachy fruit, great length too	£22
Einzigacker Weissburgunder	Ok, ok, not cheap but very incredible. It has an incredible weight and density, with powerful fruit and a bit of butterscotch richness. Drink it slowly and with wonder	£46
Hungary		£1
Dogobo Furmint	Furmint is one of the grapes used to make the sweet wine Tokaji. This is a dry version and it is strikingly aromatic, complex, dense, fresh and thrilling stuff	£19
Italy Central		£1
Orvieto Classico Castellani	Dry, crisp and elegant, with gentle flavors of lemon, quince and a nutty almond note, very summery!	£8
Verdicchio Castellani	Almond and citrus flavours, good weight, lovely freshness and dry and persistent finish with a slightly bitter note of almond and kernels; try this if you like oaked Chardonnay	£8
Soave Classico Monteforte	Made from the Garganega grape this Soave is a lovely balance between ripe, aromatic fruit and fresh, zingy acidity	£8
Vernaccia Castellani	Lightly oaked with a good full body this is a great Italian alternative to a Chardonnay	£9
Villa Bucchi Verdicchio	Powerfully concentrated and intensely fresh this is comparable to a good Burgundy. Apricot, honey and spice on the nose, full body and a vibrant tingy line of acidity running through	£17
Pieropan Soave La Rocca	Incredible wine; won Top Italian White Wine in 2011 International Wine Challenge, intense honey and almond perfume, ripe exotic fruit and long mineral finish	£27
Isole e Olena Chardonnay	This is Italian but it is every bit as good as top flight white Burgundy, ripe, rich and wonderful it is comparable to good Mersault	£38
Italy NE		£1
Terrace della Luna Pinot Grigio	From Trentino, so further north than many PG this is great value giving much more fruit and flavour than you might expect.	£8.5
Pinot Grigio Cortegiara	A Scarlet best-seller - a beautiful Pinot Grigio from one of Italy's most acclaimed producers	£10
Rizzardi Soave	Soave Sclassico comes from the oldest and best part of Soave with hills and better sun exposure. The result is bracing and crisp with floral notes and great concentration. A lot of wine for this price	£13
Erste and Neue Pinot Grigio	This is a rich full bodied full flavoured Pinot Grigio from the mountains of Northern Italy. Totally different to the usual bland nonsense you see in pubs	£13
Erste and Neue Chardonnay	I love Erste and Neue, they consistently produce clear, pure, fruit driven and simply delicious wines. This is no exception, delicious bright, fruity, unoaked chardonnay	£14
Erste and Neue Pinot Blanc	Sadly Sudtirol Italians speak Austrian, so they call this Weissburgunder not Pinot Blanc, so less people buy it, which is sad, because it is ACE!	£14

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
		£1
Specogna Friulano	Friulano is native to NE Italy and it gives a wine which is powerfully fresh, rich, complex and spiced; with citrus, almonds and exotic spice	£17.5
Specogna Pinot Grigio	Ripe Pinot Grigio grapes are red and this has taken on a pink tinge as a result. First class NE Italian Pinot Grigio, rich apple and pineapple palate and great length	£18.5
Italy NW		£1
Tuffolo Gavi	Light zesty Gavi from the Cortese grape, north East Italy's answer to Pinot Grigio	£9
Terre Antiche Gavi	Gavi is generally expensive. This is a great value option though from a top producer. Scented delicate and zesty it would work brilliantly with shellfish	£14.5
Gavi di Gavi La Giustiana	This is a wonderfully fresh and fragrant example of this famous Piemonte white, made from the Cortese grape	£23
Alma Terra Chardonnay	Pretty fresh with lemon and grapefruit, lots of concentration and a long powerful fresh and mineral finish. Just really great chardy then...	£22
Bellavista Uccellanda	Absolutely top notch Italian Chardonnay; dense, mineral and complex with a really long finish. It is quite a rich tropical fruit style with delicate vanilla oak. Could it look any cooler? It could not.	£45
Italy South		£1
Passo del Tempio Catarratto	From Sicily, lovely easy drinking light style, fresh zesty and delicious	£8.5
Colline Pescai Pecorino	With lots of floral, stone fruit and citrus this is really great value with a tingling spine if freshness and a final nutty complexity	£9.5
Paccamora Inzolia	Supple, fresh and crisp with citrus, melon and white peach fruit	£10
Vigneti di Salento I Muri	From Puglia, home normally to reds, come a really delicious white. This is crisp and full or ripe peach flavours	£10.5
Cento Cavali Grillo	Zesty limey nose and bright fruity palate. Great value too	£10
Lapilli Falanghina	Super ancient grape variety and grown here. A big range of fruit; from zesty lemon to ripe pineapple a core of freshness keeps it all in line	£12
Donnafugata Polena	Catarratto and Viognier blend from top Sicilian estate. Big fleshy fragrant wine. Good minerality with a crisp citrus and smooth tropical fruits on the finish.	£13.5
Greco di Tufo Vesevo	Greco is a super ancient grape thought possibly to have come from ancient Greece. Here it gives tremendous weight with lots of stone fruit, richness and a strongly mineral finish, seriously good	£14.5
Dragone Falanghina	Fresh and tangy with nice middle weight and appealing peachy fruit	£11
Zensa Fiano	Organic and wonderfully well made this has mango and peachy fruit with a sage herb note to prove it is Italian	£12
Domaine des Tourelles White	Lebanon is all about blends and this combination gives richness, weight and above all aromatics. Sensual, perfumed nose and plenty of fruit	£11.5
New Zealand		£1
Cloud Factory Sauvignon	Zesty, fruity, fresh and delicious this is incredible value for a proper NZ Sauvignon	£9.5
Auntsfield Sauvignon Blanc	Auntsfield are small family owned and genuine Marlborough stars, regularly winning awards. This has passion fruit and peach flavours and a refreshing brightness	£13.5
Huia Sauvignon	Organic, made by a lady and just delicious. The fruit in this has a richness, complexity and just delicious freshness. One of the best NZ Sauvignons on the market I would say	£14
Huia Pinot Gris	Huia are great and this is dry and fresh, but with lovely weight and concentration of spicy, peach and pear fruit. Ripe and full, finishes crisp and refreshing	£15
Huia Gewurtztraminer	This is the best NZ Gewurtz I've tried bar none. Lovely richness, lovely weight, classic explosive Gewurtz nose, it all works brilliantly. Biodynamic too	£15
Pegasus Bay Riesling	This has an amazing ringing clarity of ripe fruit, with classic Riesling cleanliness and mineral length, very good indeed	£17
Greywacke Sauvignon	Made by Kevin Judd the man who made Cloudy Bay famous one of the best Kiwi Sauvignons on the market and in very limited quantities	£17.5
Aria Late Harvest Riesling	Top quality, late harvest, part Botrytis, sweet Riesling from the wonderful Pegasus Bay. Intense flavours of ripe pear and citrus and honey underpinned with bright acidity and minerality. Heavenly then...	£20
Wild Ferment Sauvignon	This is by Kevin Judd the original winemaker for Cloudy Bay and it takes Sauvignon to a whole new level. Complex, sweetly fruited and multi layered, it is delicious and its very hard to stop drinking it once you start	£26

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01 £1
Greywacke Marlborough Chardonnay	Brightly fresh nose but with a lot of weight and a complex buttery palate. Lots of lemon and grapefruit but also some riper more tropical fruit and brioche. This really first rate Chardy from one of NZ's top producers.	£29
Portugal		£1
Garrida Dao	A lovely aromatic nose, a savoury mid palate and a fresh tangy finish mean this is great value and delicious. From the hot, dry Dao Region	£10
Conde Villar Vinho Verde	Vinho Verde meaning 'Green Wine' - a reference to the youthful state in which it is usually sold. Very light and fresh perfect with shellfish	£8
Auratus	Deep in colour, intensely flavoured with ripe peach, smoke and a lovely stony note but driven along by really clean freshness. Like a lighter version of Albarino	£13
South Africa		£1
Robertson Chenin Blanc	Fresh pears and golden delicious - no really! Super value wine...	£7
Excelsior Sauvignon	Excelsior = historic producer + bright fruit forward wines + great value. Perfect. Nicely complex grapefruit and poassion fruit flavours	£9.5
Liberator Chenin	The liberator sniffs out forgotten parcels of extraordinary SA wines. This is a stunning chenin at an incredible price.	£10
Quando Sauvignon	The fruit from this is picked in four goes to give different ripeness levels. So, you get some tropical fruit sitting alongside a more herbal note. It works great tjhough and this is a lot of Sauvignon for the price	£11
Liberator Doctor Melck	The Liberator series is a set of small one off parcels of wine liberated from the best estates in SA. This is a a complex and rich white blend.	£12.5
The Foundry Rousanne	Rich, weighty and full of flavour this is a rare chance to try Rousanne from SA. It's a grape normally found in the Rhone but it clearly can do very well in sunny SA	£15
Leeuwenkui Marsanne	Rips and rich with tropical fruits, a hint of ginger and a mouth filling weight, real freshness too to keep it all in order	£14.5
Scali Sirkel Chenin	Tiny, organic production from a husband and wife team. Bright, pure and complex with multi layered fruit, proper wine from proper people	£14
Intellego Chenin	Superb example of a raw, racy vibrant SA chenin. This is from young gun Jurgen Gouws and it has bags of intensity, ripe stine fruit, minerality and length. First class wine	£18
Miles Mossop Saskia	This is what SA looks like at the cutting edge now. Superbly rich, complex, satisfying wines. The comparison with good white Burgundy is fair but the price is so much more reasonable. Superb stuff.	£20
Botanica Chenin Blanc	From 50 year old dry farmed, low yielding bush vines this shows just how good SA chenin can be; limey freshness, good weight and very intense this is delicious wine	£25
Cartology	A genuinely world class wine, and one at the forefront of the SA wine revolution these last couple of years. Complex, multi-layered and finely textured palate it is a wine that rewarx close attention	£32
Fable Mountain Jackal Bird	A big, classy complex blend this is first rate stuff from one of SA's cutting edge producers. There is restrained, complex power here with monerality and zip. Thrilling wine.	£24
South America		£1
San Abello Sauvignon Blanc	Good acid balance and tremendous value at this price	£7
Alto Bajo Chardonnay	Rich full bodied and nicely ripe with peach and some tropical fruit, super value at this price	£7
Calbuco Sauvignon Blanc	Juicy grapefruit and lime flavours nicely easy drinking style	£10
High Altitude Chardonnay Torrontes	The blend here couples freshness and richness to great effect. So lots of stone fruit and perfumed, floral aromatics but with a nice tight core of acidity to drive things forward	£9.5
Kaiken Ultra Chardonnay	Superbly classy wine from high in the Andes, it walks the ripeness and acidity tightrope with poise and sees just a touch of oak to add complexity. The quality of the vineards in the top rated Uco vallet really shows through	£14
Spain		£1
El Tesoro Verdejo	Intensely aromatic, passion fruit and grapefruit flavours and a lovely clarity. This is great value too at this price	£7.5
Cien Malvasia	Nicely floral and aromatic with good weight and a lot of ripe stone and citrus fruit this also happens to wear the sexiest label in the shop, except for its sister rosado of course	£8

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
		£1
Juan Gil Moscatel	Moscatel is what the Spanish call Muscat and it is the only wine grape to really taste of grapes when made into wine. So, this has a lovely aromatic, grapey, nose and a lot of fruit on the palate, perfect as an easy drinking aperitif	£10.5
Val Orballo Albarino	Superb value albarino. It has all you'd expect; intensity, freshness and lovely weight of fruit just at a more affordable price. Yey!	£11
Mara Martin Godello	Vivid straw yellow the Godello grape gives this a lovely fatness, upfront fruit and a long finish - try it if you like Chardonnay	£11
Flor de Vetus	Spanish Verdejo's are super trendy and often super expensive. This is a great value version and a great example of the style. Lots of good peachy stone fruit, good concentration and persistence	£13
The Flower and the Bee	From the Treixadura grape in cool NW Spain this has a vibrant freshness, real intensity and lots of clean fresh steely fruit. Try it if you like Sauvignon but do try it because it's ace	£13.5
Gaintza Txakoli	Light bodied and tangy with lots of citrus this is a great wine for all kinds of seafood but with good intensity and persistence of flavour too	£13
Bolo Godello	Made by Rafael Palacios this is delicious Godello with intensity, delicious weight and lime fruit freshness	£13.5
Mas Candi Desig	A rare example of a wine from pure Xarel-Lo, which is usually used to make Cava. Nice medium weight and ripe pear fruit, really mineral, hint of savoury bitter fennel to set it part from the crowd, delicious	£14
Zarate Albarino	Strongly mineral, balanced and tight this is almost Chablis like, steely but with peach and apricot	£16
Cosme Palacio Rioja Blanco	From one of Rioja's star producers this is a deliciously smooth, modern style of white Rioja. Just the perfect lick of toasty, vanilla oak to complement plenty of ripe fruit and freshness	£12.5
Maranones Picarana	From Vinos de Madrid this is a really low intervention wine from 100% Albillo. Flavourful enough to go with lighter meats it has heaps of richness and weight balanced by minerality. Ideal with something like Roast Turkey	£17.5
Trenzado	From seriously old, low yielding vines, in the cooler north part of Tenerife this is a fascinating and delicious wine; freshness, balance, purity of fruit, floral aromas, minerality and an authentic terroir character	£19
Nanclares Albarino	Absolutely first rate albarino. This has everything going; intensity of fruit, a mineral finish and a bright line of freshness driving it all along. Superb!	£17
Australia		£1
Sixty Clicks Shiraz Mataro	Soft and rich with spicy, chocolatey fruit, this is a totally convincing, happy days, crowd pleaser. Looks cool too...	£8.5
16 Stops Shiraz	McLaren Vale is seen as one of the best spots in Australia for Shiraz; enough heat to ripen the grapes but cool sea breezes to keep the wine elegant. Dark fruit, spiced plums and terrific value	£9.5
Xanadu Cabernet	Full bodied, rich, long and packed with cassis and dark chocolate flavours. This is a lovely example of the pristine fruit and breezy freshness Margaret River is famous for	£12
Omrah Pinot Noir	This is really good Aussie Pinot and a very fair price - heaps of bright cherry and raspberry fruit, very fragrant and expressive	£14
Amelia Park Trellis Red	A blend of Merlot and Cabernet but with characteristically pristine Margaret River fruit this is lively, involving and a delight to drink. It has nice ripe tannin and would be great with hearty food	£15
Kalleske Clarry's GSM	Black Cherry, Rose perfume, Clove Spice and Milk Chocolate aid to round this full juicy wine along with fine tannins to add structure and texture	£21
Kalleske Pirathon Shiraz		£23
John Duval Plexus	The Barossa blend of old vine Shiraz, Grenache and Mourvedre is an absolute classic, this is weighty powerful and dense	£27
Coonawarra Cabernet Balnaves	Top of the range Cabernet Sauvignon with tight dense black fruit balanced with firm but supple tannins	£28
Heathcote Sangiovese	The ONLY non Italy Sangiovese I've ever tasted that's worth drinking. But it really works here. Classic Sangiovese with dried herbs and savoury fruit, structured too, intense and persistent	£30
Bordeaux		£1
Claret Dubosc	Proper Claret for a great price. Plummy, spicy and perfect with food, the Merlot gives it juice and fruit, with just enough backbone from the Cab	£10
Chateau La Croix Calendreau	Cracking value, from 100% merlot. Classic classy Claret, nice earthy edge, good structure and modern enough to have some plump fruit	£11

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01 £1
Ch La Grave Singalier	75% Merlot, 200m outside the Graves AC this is just a great value Bordeaux, soft and fruity with a nice bit of cedar	£12
Chateau Beynat	Super value for an organic Bordeaux; mid weight, raspberry fruit and some spice, lovely modern style	£14
Chateau Le Jonc Blanc Bergerac	Bergerac is like Bordeaux's like lesser known brother, same grapes but better value. This is 50% Cab, 40% Merlot, 10% Malbec, deep dark colour and fruits, Sunday lunch wine	£15
Chateau Beauregard Ducasse	Great food wine and value for Bordeaux at this price; intense red fruit, light tannin, gently spicy and with a long finish	£15
Layuaga-Dubosc Medoc	Classic, classy Medoc with nice cassis, some smokey clove spice and that perfect Bordeaux freshness and structure. Don't serve it too warm - 18 dec C is absolute max	£17
Chateau Moulin de Lagnet	Classic mid weight classy Bordeaux. Merlot softness and fruit intensity with some eucalyptus and mint to season from the Cabernet	£19
Chateau Brulsecaille	With some 60 year old vines this is an excellent wine at this price level. Lovely rich fruity nose, luscious mouth feel with good attack and length on the palate.	£21
Gravieres Margaux	Real depth and concentration of black fruit, great complexity and long too. Will drink now but would easily improve for ten years or so	£36
Chateau Le Bosq	Le Boscq is at the top of end of what used to be called Cru Bourgeois and it is very good indeed: very elegant with blackcurrant and plummy fruit	£36
Chateau Dauzac	This classed growth Margaux has lots of earthy minerality, plenty of structure, intense black fruit and a nice mid weight; classic Margaux in other words	£40
Chateau Haut Marbuzet	Coming into perfect stride now, this has classic left bank structure, medium to full body and layers of plummy fruit and spice. Elegant wine but with some upholstery too!	£50
Chateau des Gravieres Magnum	Perfect for Christmas Day, two whole vottles of delicious Margaux at a lovely age too	£75
Burgundy		£1
Belleverne Beaujolais Village	Juicy, sappy, snappy, crackle-pop fun from beginning to end. This is youthful exuberant and ridiculously moreish. Try it lightly chilled too	£9
Belleverne St Amour	One for the lovers. Made by a lady and perhaps it shows? A real delicacy here; juicy, drinkable, refreshing beaujolais. The polar opposite of big, serious or tiring	£11.5
Aviron Beaujolais Villages	Really great Villages level wine, really clean and fresh with lots of red fruit, quite silky mouthfeel and good chilled	£12
Bernard Moreau Bourgogne	So, so French in style. Minerality, intensity and an extraordinary freshness and delicacy rule here. Don't expect fruit! The vrry thought. Perfect with rustic French food. Chcken Chasseur anyone?	£15
Chateau de Pierreaux Brouilly	This is Beaujolais made like a Burgundy, richer deeper and very concentrated for a Gamay, very good indeed	£16
Clos du Jaugueyron	The nose is understated with hints of cherry and mocha. The palate offers rich but very supple, silky fruit. Oak has been sensitively handled and the fine tannins are well knitted in.	£27
Mugneret Haute Cotes de Nuits	HCDN is a famous but often disappointing French appellation. But this is the exception with lots of lovely silky black fruits and a hint of forest complexity, exciting stuff	£25
Domaine Berthelmont Pommard	This is a beautifully perfumed Pinot Noir with aromas of sweet red berries, subtle savoury spice and firm yet rounded tannins. Not cheap, but great value for what it delivers	£32
Dom Gallois Gevrey-Chambertin	Great richness and intensity, supported by a savoury earthy character. Fresh dark berry flavours with a firm structured finish	£42
Mongeard Mugneret Nuits St George	In Burgundy you buy the producer not the AC Mongeard Mugneret are right up there - this is one of their cheaper wines! Full bodied and solid, cherries, blackcurrant and truffles. I would drink this daily if I could	£60
Amiot Servelle Chambolle-Musigny	Very small production but first class quality. Bright red fruits, a lovely freshness and just enough tannin to balance, great to drink now but will improve for 3/4 years	£58
Loire		£1
Vendome Rouge	This is from a totally obscure AC North of the R Loire, this is juicy and lean on the palate with a lovely and distinctive white pepper finish. Treat it like a beaujolais or pinot noir	£11
Dom des Pothiers No 6	From Gamay grape that makes Beaujolais but this is from the Loire. Bright, zippy, red fruit and with a nice light peppery and reaspberry touch. Organic too, which is nice	£15.5
La Gabere Grosbois Chinon	Perfect Cabernet Franc curranty leafiness coupled to a silky mid palate; dry, fresh, savoury and grown up and nicely low in alcohol too at only 12%	£18.5

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
Rhone		£1
Boutinot Codes du Rhone	Ripely, sensually, sinuously blends sweet red fruits and with complex spicy layers. This is swooningly smooth, delicious and just highly enjoyable wine	£9.5
Ermitage Costieres de Nimes	Warmly fruity but with a lovely savoury, rustic edge that adds complexity and interest and reminds you this is France not Australia	£9.5
Eric Boulet Pichot Roucas	Could this bottle look any more French? Delicious Rhone with equal parts, Grenache, Syrah, Carignan; supple, fresh, fruity and dangerously drinkable	£13
Moulin des Chenes Lirac	This has a delicious velvet soft mouthfeel, lovely rich fruit and nice length. It's gentle, enjoyable warm and plump. Perfect and typical Lirac in other words	£13
Blanquettes Rasteau	Plump, lush, velvety and richly fruity this is a delicious Southern Rhone wine. It's similar in style to Chateaufort but without the price tag!	£14
Nicolas Perrin Crozes	Ruby red, youthfully fruity and sippily drinkable this has cherry and red plum fruit with a nicely spicy backbone	£19
Chateaufort Vaudieu	This is superbly, indulgently, voluptuously soft, juicy and warm. It will soothe your soul and delight your senses. Wine as therapy?	£23.5
Dom Gallety Cotes du Vivarais	First class Rhone wine here. From the North end of the Southern Rhone, half and half Grenache, Syrah. It's a bit cooler here so the wine keeps a really nice freshness as well as ripe blackberry fruit.	£25
Georges Reynaud Crozes	Light, perfumed and aromatic, this is a deliciously drinkable style of Syrah. It's full of flavour; red fruits, black pepper and spice but more akin to Pinot Noir than Aussie Shiraz	£25
Duseigneur Chateaufort	Absolutely top rate Chateaufort from low yielding old vines this is awesomely full and soft. It will wrap you up in warm red blankets of joy and lull you off to sleep	£29
Chateaufort Vaudieu	A classic blend of Grenache, Syrah and Mourvedre has been slightly oaked to produce a soft and vibrant red	£33
Clairon Costieres	Spicy, fruity and rounded this is great value Rhone wine, with lots of ripe fruit.	£9
South		£1
Vignes de l'Eglise Merlot Grenache	This southern French blend of Grenache and Merlot is full of damsony fruits and ripe tannins	£8.5
Olibet Grenache	Softly, sweetly, red fruited; this just wraps its red little arms around you and lulls you into an alcoholic reverie. So, relaxing and easy to like then...	£8.5
Le Fou Pinot Noir	Superb Pinot noir for this price. Le Fou means the fool, which is what people thought producer was for trying to make this wine in the Languedoc. Presumably they have been drinking their words...	£8.5
Volcans Red	A rare blend of Gamay and Pinot noir this could only be French. Deliciously light it would work chilled, it has plenty of snappy zing and a stony minerality, great for this price	£9.5
Fardel-Laurens Fauquieres	Medium bodied and juicy with lovely berry fruit. Well done oak adds a bit of spice and softness. Nicely balanced wine	£11
Massamier La Mignarde	From the Minervois region with lots of spicy ripe fruit this is a lot of wine for the money	£11
Terres Falmet Carignan	Low production with everything done by hand this has spicy black liquorice fruit and a lovely silky mouthfeel	£13
Petit Bergerie Cahors	This is 100% Malbec from the region that had it years before Argentina. Rich, plummy and velvety but with a more savoury garrigue note to prove it is French!	£12
Dom Labranche-Laffront Madiran	Madiran is in SW France close to Pau. Tannat is the local grape and it gives this some nice ripe cassis and liquorice flavours, intense fruit and a hint of spice	£14.5
Dom Bergerie Cuvee Juline Cahor	From perfectly formed tiny Domaine de la Bergerie this is 100% Malbec to remind you the French had it first! Tobacco, figs, prunes and a lovely developing savouriness	£15
Zazous Pinot Noir	Love the name "Les Zazous" - it means hipster! And love the wine, a really stylish, hip and convincing Pinot with a fine silky palate	£15
Cebene Fauquieres	Intense black cherry and blueberry fruit, spicy herbal and stony notes throughout, This is dense multi-layered and rewards your attention! Please try it...	£21
Chemin de Moscou	Award winning South of France red, Jancis Robinson says "Mouthfilling Rich and Round Polished Very fine Savoury" and scored it at 17/20 ie very good indeed	£23
Bandol Ch St Anne	On the nose you will find black fruits, liquorice, a hint of game and minerality. Very elegant and drinking beautifully now though will age very well.	£31
Moscou Magnum	Fantastic for a celebration, very good wine indeed, in the super cool looking Magnum format	£48

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
Heinrich Red	Lovely, light, soft fruity style with lots of cherry fruit aromatics. A lovely summer red. Would work chilled too	£1
Italy Central		£14
Villa Dei Fiori Montepulciano	Classic Italian wine filled with crisp Morello Cherry flavours and savoury olives notes, balanced with a great acidity.	£8
Gran Sasso Montepulciano	Classic Montepulciano; lots of juicy cherry and sour cherry fruit, delicious	£10
Da Vinci Chianti	Nicely plump and plenty of ripe plummy fruit, very good Chianti for this price	£10
Fantini Sangiovese	This is Sangiovese from the Adriatic coast of Abruzzo. Different from Tuscany this has a little more ripe fruit, great lively acidity and nice ripe tanins. Organic too!	£10
Falesco Vitiano	Concentrated fruit, supple and refreshing this is a great modern style from Central Italy	£12
Barco Reale	Awesome value. The second wine from the super historic Capezzana Estate in Carmignano. From Sangiovese plus some Cabernet it seriously over delivers at this price point	£15
Chianti Rufina Selvapiana	Ruffina is a fantastic part of Chianti producing some great value high quality wines, this has the classic bitter fruit character of good Chianti	£15
Fontodi Chianti Classico	Fontodi is one of the stars of Chianti Classico and this is his stock in trade - simply superb Chianti Classico	£22
Felsina Chianti Classico	The Southern Edge of Chianti Classico where it is warmer. As a result this has plenty of power, with concentrated plummy flavours a great herbal note running through to the finish	£23
Capezzana Carmignano	With history back to 804! Capezzana know their stuff. This is 80% Sangiovese and 20% Cabernet and the quality of the fruit makes this taut, muscular but still elegant - seriously good	£26
Constanti Brunello	Believe it or not this is incredible value. Deep and dense with red fruit, licqorice, leather and herbs this is superb and proves how good the best Sangiovese can be	£50
Isole e Olena Cepparello	Top of the range Chianti but worth the price tag. Great depth of dark cherry, elegant, scented and pure with huge length. The screw cap keeps in the superb freshness and richness of fruit	£66
Gaja Ca Marcanda	It is pleasingly perverse to have our top Bordeaux style wine from Bolgheri in Italy rather than Bordeaux. But make no mistake this is excellent; big, silky, complex ripe black fruit, aromatic spice and really long lasting. Intense and thrilling, multi layered	£60
Fontodi Flaccianello	This is Fontodi's best wine and is deservedly world famous as demonstrating the pinnacle of what Sangiovese can achieve. A Christmas Day wine!	£63
Italy NE		£1
Luna Teroldego Rotaliano	Teroldego is native to this part of Italy and it gives a complex juicy and dark fruited style with liquorice and chocolate notes too. As with most Italian varieties it is fresh and lovely with food	£8.5
Ca di Alte Pinot Nero	This has lovely freshness of red cherry fruit and it a brilliant Pinot Noir for this price - no mean feat for any producer	£9.5
Bottega Vinai Pinot Nero	Delicate cherry fruit, middle weight and lovely freshness, this is very nice supply Pinot with a silky palate	£11.5
Rizzardi Bardolino	Pretty serious fpr a Bardolino. Perfumed nose, berries and spice. Its still light on the palate but with a lovely freshness and elegance	£11.5
Belvedere Ripasso	Fresh Corvina juice is "re-passed" over skins left from an Amarone pressing; Valpolicella on steroids in a good way	£13
Rizzardi Valpolicella	More weighty and complex than many valpolicellas, cherry fruit and a vibrant racy twang. Perfect with antipasti, salami etc	£12
Gran Passione	A lovely example of an apassimento wine. That is when the grapes are allowed to dry a little on the before harvest. Everything gets more concentrated and this is like a mini amarone, rich fruity and delicious	£13
Sarafini and Vidotto Recantina	Packed with a nervous energy and jangly raspberry fruitiness it has a medical twang on the nose then the fruit on the palate bowls you over. Unheard of grape proves fascinating. From the Veneto	£15
Erste and Neue Lagrein	Unusual (and excellent) red grape from North Italy, flavours of cherry and bitter chocolate with lovely smooth tannins	£15
Erse and Neur Pinot Nero	We love Erste and Neue! They are a first rate co-op in German speaking Northern Italy and this is a delightful Pinot. Lots of fruit, wonderfully vibrant silky smooth. A real charmer of a wine	£15
Pieropan Ruberpan	I love Pieropan, everything they do is first class, including this. Perfumed and intensely fruity it is complex and you just cant help coming back for another sip!	£20

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
Rizzardi Amarone 3 Cru	Rizzardi Amarone is some of the best available. This is their entry level version but what value it gives. Complex, multi layered, ripe and spicy with a mouth filling smoothness	£1
Alpha Zeta Amarone	Made by air drying Corvina grapes by 40% volume the result is huge and intense - cherry heaven!	£29
Rizzardi Amarone	Complex, layers of fresh and cooked fruit, fruitcake and sweet spice. The more you pay attention the more flavour you find, very long with a thread of freshness running through it. It's delicious and its a wine to really savour	£29
Italy NW		£38
Il Cascinone Barbera	Surprisingly deeply coloured with a nose of intense ripe damson and black cherry with just a little woodsmoke, this is robust and full-flavoured stuff. Roast lamb, veggie chilli?	£1
Vajra Dolcetto	Berry fruits, summer herby notes and sweet tannins with a black cherry finish, in other words lovely, juicy and very moorish	£8.5
Veglio Angelo Barolo	This full-bodied, velvety Barolo is produced from Nebbiolo grapes grown on the Veglio Family Estate. Rich, Ripe fruit flavours- a great choice for red meats, game and strong cheeses.	£17
Vajra Barbera	Aldo Vajra is a living legend in Barolo. His wines capture an aromatic perfumed delicacy that is hard to beat. This shows how good Barbera can become - complex and layered with leafy tobacco and spicy floral notes	£18
Vajra Langhe Nebbiolo	Light coloured, delicate, complex and smelling of dried roses this is a sensual, feminine wine for those who value subtlety and poise. No shrinking violet though it is also vibrant bright and full of joy.	£20.5
Sperino Uvaggio	Seriously good wine from the Sperino Estate in N Piemonte, this is 75% Nebbiolo with a little Vespolino and Croatina to soften it; complex and savoury with plenty of plummy fruit	£22
Vajra Barolo	Vajra make traditional style Barolo this has perfumes of Autumn fruit, plums and prunes, a complex palate with huge intensity powerful tannin and a long smoky finish	£25.5
Barolo Massolino	More modern and fruit driven this Barolo is a great balance of raspberry, liquorice, savoury and spicy flavours with smooth tannins	£37
Aldo Conterno Barolo	Intensely perfumed floral nose with immense dark fruit, dense tight tannins and amazing length, superb	£41
Italy South		£73
Villa dei Fiori Primitivo	Great value to make a wine this tasty for this price	£1
Paccamora Nero d'Avola	Soft, juicy and fruity with violet and plummy fruit	£8
I Muri Negroamaro	Velvety with loads of ripe black fruit, still manages to finish pretty fresh though	£10
Tenute Rubino Negroamaro	Plump, ripe black fruit and spices predominate here. It is a big noisy joyful party of a wine and you are invited!	£10.5
Beneventano Aglianico	Dark ripe fruit, liquorice and lovely soft fruit tannin this is a great big mouthful of red and great value	£10.5
Sherazade Nero D'Avola	From Sicily; blackberries and sour cherries with a touch of sweet cocoa and nice soft tannin	£12
Benanti Etna Rosso	From the N slopes of the volcano. Brightly red fruited and fresh but with a lick of softening vanilla, its elegant and long lasting	£13.5
Centopassi Nero Davola	Yet another lovely Sicilian wine; full of sage and rosemary herbal notes alongside plump fruit. This will remind anyone of the med. From a few km S of Palermo	£18
Nicosia	Grown on the slopes of Mt Etna. Perfumed with red berry and red cherry, a nice bit of spice. What stands out though is a streak of bright freshness the runs through it	£20
Domaine des Tourelles Red	This is punchy, spicy blend from the warm Baekaa valley. Mouth filling and hearty with cassis and cherry fruit. Would be ace with lamb	£10.5
New Zealand		£11.5
Rua Pinot Noir	Really complex black fruit nose, lots of elegance, bags of fruit but soft supple tannin too and it is a snip really for this quality on Pinot Noir	£1
Crimson Pinot Noir	Ata Rangi's Pinot Noir is consistently ranked as one of New Zealand's best	£20
Greywacke Pinot Noir	This shows how good NZ Pinot is getting and what a great winemaker Kevin Judd is. There are heaps of fruit flavours here, all wrapped up with a touch of smoke and spice for barrel ageing. It's delicious, complex and long lasting.	£24
Portugal Regional		£30
Alvaro Castro Dao	A rich dark spicy and mouth filling red. It's powerful stuff but not tiring or jammy, there is a savoury quality and nice freshness that keeps you going back for more	£1
		£12

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
Ataide Semedo Baga	A little like Cabernet this has delicious sweet dark fruit, a lovely texture but above all an tingling greshness, really well made drinkable wine	£1
Azamor	Intense fruit flavours of cassis and cherry, with a touch of savoury bacon and herbs! Lovely smooth ripe texture too	£12
South Africa Red		£12.5
William Robertson Shiraz	Lovely easy drinking Shiraz taste the South African sunshine in your glass	£1
Excelsior Cabernet	Excelsior = historic producer + bright, fruit forward, wines + great value. Perfect. Dark blackcurrant fruit and smoe herbal notes, smooth with soft tannin	£8.5
Robertson Pinot Noir	Light body, light coloiut and lovely bright red fruits and superb value for a Pinot	£9.5
Liberator Syrah	The liberator sniffs out forgotten parcels of extraordinary SA wines. This is a stunning syrah at an incredible price.	£9.5
Leeuwenkuil Shiraz	From the super fashionable and surprisngly cool Swartland this is miles away from a typical SA Shiraz with perfume, elegance and a lovely bouncy freshness	£10
Solms Delta Langarm	From a super historic estate this specialises in letting grapes dry a little on the vine. This is their entry level Cape blend with great vibrant youthful fruit - look at that list of grapes!	£10
Vasco and the Explorers	This is a Poruguese grape rearing it's delicious head now in South Africa and it seems to suit the climate perfectly. Powerful, deeply coloured and richly tannic wine with a lovely perfumed nose	£10
Abraham and the Heretics	Abraham here is preaching the under-appreciated joys of South Africa's own Pinotage grape to a sceptical public. You must be the judge! (But I like it).	£10
Sirkel Skali Pinotage	Remarkable wine! A pinotage to convert the skeptic. This is extraordinarily fresh, light and vibrant. Almost Pinot Noir like in style. Love it!	£14
Liberator Swartland Evolution	The Liberator series is a set of small one off parcels of wine liberated from the best estates in SA. This is a seriously good blend with lots of dark Cabernet fruit.	£14
Leeuwenkuil Cinsault	Spicy and complex with cherry and red berry fruits with a black olive twist, this shows how elegant SA reds have become, nothing heavy or tiring to be found just delicious drinking	£14.5
Solms Delta Hiervandaan	From a super historic estate this specialises in letting grapes dry a little on the vine. This is intense thrilling stuff with complex aromas and a weight palate. Would keep well too if you are the patient sort	£16
Liberator Old Breton	The Liberator series is a set of small one off parcels of wine liberated from the best estates in SA. This is a fascinating and delicious Cab Franc.	£17.5
Chocolate Block	No fewer than 5 grape varieties go into this huge and memorable wine - a South African blockbuster. You know it makes sense!	£23
Botanica Pinot Noir	Delicate multi layered strawberry palate with a deicious softness this is a lovely delicate style of Pinot	£25
South America		£1
San Abello Merlot	The best value wine in the shop? Soft and lovely Chilean Merlot at a cool price	£7
Calbuco Merlot	Great Chilean Merlot spicy cassis and plum really good value at this price	£10
Kaiken Cabernet	Ripe plummy red fruit and a lick of vanilla oak and are central here, followed up by some nice sweet spice on the finish. Delivering this quality of fruit at such an apptractive price is an Argentine speciality	£9.5
High Altitude Malbec Syrah	Sweet ripe malbec fruit with an extra kick of spicy black fruit from syrah. The blend works really well here making a bright bold food wine	£9.5
Finca Los Primos Malbec	Rich, deep and chocolatey Malbec from Argentina	£10
Renancer Punto Final Cabernet	Brightly fruity with black cherry and plum, supplemented by eucalypt, pepper and clove. But what I liked is the freshness, not tiring, lazy or fat	£11
Renancer Punto Final Malbec	Fruit for this comes from around 1,000m up where it is cool but very sunny. So you get grapes that have high acidity but thick, ripe deep coloured skins. So, Malbec power but less cloying and more drinkable	£11.5
Ventisquero Pinot Noir	Really first class Pinot at a great price, lots of fruit but with a tand of pepper and forest floor. It's really aromatic and juicy too with a finish that lingers. Its all about balance and this walks the tightrope perfectly	£14
Ventisquero Carmenere	This is big bold and complex with with lots of intense dark fruit, graphite and a lovely rich mouthfeel. Great with red meat or heary dishes	£14

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
		£1
Garage Wine Co The Ploughmen	Made to support farmers whose vineyards were damaged in Chiles 2010 earthquake. It is made in tiny quantities and with everything done by hand. Strikingly dense and concentrated it is multi layered, big wine and demands attention!	£21
Garage Wine Company Carignan	Dense and tightly knit with a big streak of mineral flavour toward the end. This is multi layered complex and long, would keep. Tiny production, our first bottle was only no 53 out of 5,000!	£22
Altos Valle de Uco	Top of the range single vineyard from Altos Las Hormigas Argentinas Malbec specialist - incredibly deep, velvety and voluptuous	£27.5
Kaiken Malbec	Cracking Malbec from a really good producer for a very fair price too. Nice rich plummy fruit, good body and soft mouthfilling texture	£9.5
Spain		£1
El Tesoro Monastrell Shiraz	Rips and juicyt with lots of spicy plummy fruit, this if from hot Jumilla in SE Spain. A place with perfect conditions to ripen Monastrell and Shiraz	£7
Bottega del Rayo Tempranillo	Juicy , young, fresh and unoaked this is the classic Joven style showing delicious bright Tempranillo fruit. Easy drinking ruity and just enjoyable wine	£7
Juan Gil Pedrera	This is from hot dry Jumilla but the wine is surprisingly fresh and full of ripe black fruit flavours of plum, black cherry and bramble. Great value too	£7.5
Cien Tinto	Smokey and spicy with weighty black fruits this seriously over delivers. Ripe, plump and full flavoured, lovely label too	£8.5
Juan Gil 4 Meses	Richly fruity with bags of ripe black fruit. This has seen 4 moths oak ageing that just softens the wine, rounds it out and adds a little extra spice	£9
Zorzal Garnacha	Young fruity and deliciously easy drinking style of juicy quaffable grenache. It's from Navarra which is close to Rioja. Value too at this price	£10
Bottega del Rayo Rioja Reserva	Classic Reserva style Rioja and great value too, this has lovely fruit but softness and a nice lick of oak. The palate is silky smooth with a long finish and great balance	£11
Ontanon Rioja	Lovely, modern, organic Rioja with nice middle weight, lots of freshness and a gentle lick of vanilla oak	£10
Castro Ventosa Mencia	Mencia is the red grape for Bierzo in NW Spain. It gives ripe fresh tangy raspberry fruit and great value. Stylish and very drinkable.	£11
Murviedro Bobal	Bobal from the Utiel Requena region close to Valencia may just be Spain's next big thing. This is a lovely ripe fruity example with lots of juicy fresh black fruit	£11
Quinta Milu Ribera	A lighter fresher and less oaked style of Ribera but the fruit still has that concentration and structure, very good indeed and great value too	£12
Flower and Bee Souson	Souson is a grape native to Ribeiro in NW Spain. Here it gives a wine with delicious zingy freshness and heaps of raspberry fruit. Excellent please try!	£13.5
Anguera Altaroses	What a sexy wine this is. From up and coming Montsant in NE Spain, biodynamic and low sulphur, this is very pure expression of fresh, juicy young Garnacha. Hugely, enjoyable, drinkable wine.	£15
Rioja Reserva Vina Izadi	From the highest part of Rioja this has lots of powerful fruit and a really light touch of oak; succulent	£14
Maranones Treintamil	From ultra low yielding, old bush vines this is Ganracha from the fiery heat of Madrid but the wine displays an extraordinary delicacy of touch, great complexty too from wild fermentation in open top barrels	£16
7 Fuentes	From Teneriffe - surely reason enough alone to try this? From the frankly unheard of Listan Negro grape, this is soft gentle and richly fruity	£17
Black Slate Priorat	This is a rare chance to try the dense delights of Priorat at a price under £20. There is a stony, smoky, dark intesity here that demands attention	£19
Pie Franco	Aromatic with forest fruit, rosemary, thyme surprisingly fresh and zesty it finishes long elegant and juicy. This is the real del; raw, racy and vibrant	£17
Fidellos de Gouto Cortezada	Mid weight, incredibly vibrant and dangerously moreish this shows how much can be done with the mencia grape. Nice plush mouthfeel and plenty of lively plummy fruit	£18
Anguera Finca l'Argata	The top wine from Anguera, this blends Syrah with their trademark Grenache to great effect. Spicy and ripely fruity with gentle fine and ripe tannin. Also biodynamic and low sulphur	£19
12 Volts	From Majorca by cult producer 4 kilos. Blend of localCallet-Fogoneu(?) plus Syrah, Cab and Merlot. It's pretty big with a bit of choc, leather and clove but with a nice freshness running through	£21
Quinta Milu Vinas Viejas	Ribeira is probably the finest expression of Tempranillo bar none and this is delicious, wine. Structured and powerful, it would go well with big meaty dishes	£23

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
Hispano Suizas Bobal	This is big and bold with lots of black fruit and spice but stays amazingly fresh and vibrant. Plenty of structure but well balanced by the intensity of fruit. Plus it looks extremely cool in its fat boy bottle	£1
Bendito Gold	Old vine tempranillo at its finest, a huge complex wine amazing structure and balance - did you know Spain could be this good?	£21
Orben Rioja	Most Riojas are blends of fruit from different sites. This is a single vineyard version. The circle on the front is not quite round symbolising the maker's ongoing search for perfection. Cool...	£24
Villacreces Ribera	Grown in vineyards that adjoin Vega Sicilia Spains most famous wine this is Tempreanillo at its finest; concentrated powerful with cassis, cranberry, mocha and black pepper	£25
Rose		£30
Domaine de l'Olibet Rose	Delicate pale pink, with a fruity floral nose, the Cinsaut gives this an extra lick of richness mid palate. Great intensity and length	£1
Volcans Rose	This is a dry, crisp, mineral and elegant rose that is delicious with all kinds of food. Great value at this price.	£8.5
Pinot Grigio Rosato Pietra	An incredibly fresh, soft and scented rose Pinot Grigio	£10.5
Chateau Beaulieu Rose	Proper Provence Rose, fresh, delicate and fruity with a lovely coral colour	£9.5
Cien Rosado	Proper old school, bright pink, intensely fruity rosado style. Bags of summer pudding fruit flavours. Just sit in the sun on a terrace and dream of baking Spanish summers, heaven!	£12.5
Fortified		£8
Plessis Pineau	Pineau de Charantes is made from unfermented grape juice fortified with newly made Brandy. So, it has a lovely fresh grapey flavour and some sweetness. This is the white version.	£1
Marsala Dry	Marsala is all about burnt caramel flavours, this is the dry version so great as an aperitif, great for cooking but do taste it as well it is delicious	£15
Siraume Umeshu	Umeshu is sake infused with plums and it is delicious! A lovely rich mouthful of sweet plum fruit, perfect with dessert	£10
Grahams Ruby Port	Young, vibrant and packed with dark plummy fruit flavours, this is the simplest style of Port but dangerously easy to drink	£16
Grahams Six Grape Port	A reserve Ruby, so like a Ruby, but with better quality fruit, so you get more complexity and more depth of flavour. Very soft and plummy	£12
Churchills LBV	LBV stands for late bottled vintage and this is like an affordable vintage Port, plenty of ripe fruit but starting to become figgy and nutty, ready to drink now	£15
Churchills 10YO Tawny	This tawny port is barrel aged for 10 years which gives it a lighter colour and mellow nutty dried fruit character, the lightest style but packed with flavour	£18
Blandy 10YO Malmsey	Malmsey is the richest, sweetest style of Madeira. It will last decades and after 10 years has developed an amazing complexity, from top producer Blandy	£21
Churchills Crusted	Crusted is like a vintage port but barrel aged to give some of the dried fruit flavours at a younger age, it has full vintage type sediment so decant it before serving	£21
Romaneira Vintage	A young vintage Port, this has all the power and concentration of an aged vintage Port gives but still with youthful fruit - like being beaten with a big soft Blueberry Mallet	£15
Nuy Muskadel	This is fortified grape juice from the hot Worcester region of SA. Something of a local icon it has delicious fresh grape flavours and works brilliantly as an aperitif	£38
Manzanilla Deliciosa	Manzanilla is the lightest sherry there is; perfect with fish Tapas or salted almonds - has a deliciously fresh yeasty flavour	£13
Inocente Fino	First rate fino, with a toasty nutty lightness coupled to huge intensity and complexity, it goes through 10 Criadera levels, most Fino's see 3 - happy to explain that, just ask	£7.5
El Candado PX	Lusciously sweet PX sherry massive intensity of, caramel and raisin flavours. Perfect at the end of a meal - like a dessert on it's own	£9
Tio Diego Amontillado	Superb quality Amontillado from sherry legends Valdespino, medium tawny nutty and toasty but quite light	£11.5
Don José Oloroso	Oloroso is dry but almost tastes sweet with deeper darker oxidised flavours of figs nuts caramel, complex and delicious	£20
Solera 1842 Oloroso	Believe it or not this is from a solera first started in 1842! It is seriously complex but fresh and perfectly balanced. Try it with cheese nuts ham or even your main course	£21.5

Wine	Description
Cornwall		0.01
		£1
Viejo CP Palo Cortado	The best style of sherry of all. A light wine, it starts life like a fino, but ages with more complexity, adding nutty caramel flavours	£40
Don Gonzalo Oloroso	Not cheap but incredible. This is Oloroso at full throttle; packed with caramel, toasted almond and dried apricot flavours, deep mahogany colour and brilliant complexity and length, a real treat	£33
Sweet		£1
Chateau Peyruchet	Superb value sweet wine from Bordeaux. This has a lovely clean fresh fruity taste and would work perfectly either on it's own, with asian dishes or with cheese	£12
Muscat de Rivesaltes	With spicy grape aromas and hints of roses this has really lovely flavour and lots of appetising acidity to balance the sweetness, delicious	£11
Dauphine Rondillon	Rich nose then intense honey, nuts and marmalade, top quality Sauternes	£16
Clos Thou Jurancon	From 100% Petit Manseng and made in tiny quantities this is ultra ripe, ultra delicious and driven by a bright streak of citrus freshness	£19
Coteaux de Layon	From Loire Chenin Blanc harvested when super ripe, often grape by grape - concentrated, brightly acidic and fresh, try it as an aperitif as well as with dessert	£19
Crème de Tete	Really amazing wine; complex dense palate with orange peel, peach, fig saffron and more, then an incredibly long and fresh finish	£33
Tokaji 5 Putts	Arguably the most famous sweet wine in the world. Now rejuvenated post communism, honied marmalade nectar	£30
Vajra Moscato d'Asti	Apricot, peach and citrus on the nose, followed by herbaceous hints and tropical fruit on the palate. A very good example of North-West Italy's frothy, sweet low-alcohol sparkling wine. I dare you to stop at just one glass!	£15
Tesauro Recioto	From the same grapes as Volpolicella and Amarone this is wonderful rich, red sweet wine great with all sorts of dessert or with cheese	£21.5
Vin Santo Cantine Leonardo	Classic sweet wine from Chianti, perfect with chocolate desserts	£26
Capezzana Vin Santo	Very expensive, but very very amazing. Read the textbook on Vin Santo and you will find this listed as one of the best of it's type. Huge intensity, complexity and length	£44
Graham Beck Rhona Muscadet	Rich straw colour with delicate orange rind flavours and grapey freshness on the palate, has an amazing rich lengthy finish	£10
Valdivieso Eclat Botrytis Semillon	Amazing value for a noble rot wine, this is lovely with your dessert or on it's own	£12